

Privacy Statement

January 8, 2010

Clayton YES! places the highest priority on protecting the privacy of our donors. We maintain donor information in strict confidence and we make every effort to protect your privacy while you are logged on our site, during and after the donation process. Clayton YES! does not sell or trade donor personal information.

What personally identifiable information is collected on this site?

Visitors may supply personally identifiable information (such as name, address or telephone numbers) for various purposes on this site. These purposes include registering for child care or applying for a job. Clayton YES! does not collect personal information from you unless you provide it to us. This means that you can visit our site without telling us who you are or revealing any personally identifiable information about yourself.

How is it used?

When you supply information about yourself for a specific purpose, we use the information for only that purpose (such as to provide the service or information you have requested). For example, you may be asked to give us individual information to receive information, register for child care, or apply for a job.

Clayton YES! does not sell or share their e-mail addresses or other information with outside sources. Should any material changes be made to the ways in which we use personally identifiable information, Clayton YES! will take commercially reasonable measures to obtain e-mail consent from you. We will also post the changes to our use of personally identifiable information on our site at least 30 days prior to a change.

Security

Personally identifiable information is stored on our server and is not publicly accessible. Further, personally identifiable information is only accessed by Clayton YES! employees on a "need to know" basis. All Clayton YES! employees must go through privacy training upon starting with Clayton YES! Clayton YES! meets or exceeds all industry standards for the protection of personally identifiable information.
